International Toast

In 1823 the Brisbane River is discovered by three ticket-of-leave convicts; Parsons, Pamphlett and Finnegan. Richard Parsons, Thomas Pamphlett and John Finnegan were three ticket-of-leave convicts, and timber-getters. They had been blown off course in a wild storm off the Illawarra coast of NSW and, believing they were south of Port Jackson, headed north. They had a fourth companion, Thompson, who became delirious from lack of water and eventually died. His body was dropped overboard. The three remaining men became shipwrecked on the southern tip of Moreton Island. They made their way across the Moreton Bay islands to the mainland, then north where they came across the Brisbane River.
Aborigines assisted the men with food and shelter. During the course of their ventures, on 14 June 1823, they came across a "large river": they were the first white men to sight this river. John Oxley, meanwhile, was surveying the area as the site for a possible penal settlement. He came across Pamphlett and Finnegan on Bribie Island, and Parsons later re-joined them, having travelled further north. The men showed Oxley the large river, which he later named the Brisbane River, after Governor Brisbane. Because of Oxley's position as surveyor-general, he became the one credited with the discovery.

The Rotary Club of Brisbane Mid-City meets for lunch every Friday. The President is Judy Xavier and the Club is involved with Smith Family hamper deliveries, Clear Up Australia campaign and the Salvation Army Red Shield Appeal. The Rotary Club of Brisbane Mid-City is also a very proud supporter of the Shelter Box program and has donated 15 Shelter Boxes to areas in need such as Nepal and Pakistan.

We experienced a great evening last week of sharing knowledge and ideas of what 2017/2018 will look like and what we can achieve. A solid plan moving forward with dedicated updates, increasing and refreshing our awareness with the continuation of making a difference.

In Rotary

Jessica Gnata

Report on last week’s meeting from scribe, Tom O'Toole

It was President Jessica’s first official meeting presiding as president. She opened the meeting with great enthusiasm and sustained the great enthusiasm for the whole meeting. Jessica was at the district meeting where the district annual report was presented. A copy will be available on the website.

We started off with lots of notes, lots of cheese but not a lot of bread on our table (apparently Milan can explain!)

We have very familiar speakers tonight and I understood most of them.

Jessica asked who had information to share before the speakers spoke.

The points I remember….

- Cook Islands Bob Armessen is looking for starters for another fabulous visit to the Cook Islands. The trip is scheduled for the 16th to 30th March 2018. Approximate cast is $3,000 pp plus drinks and meals.
- Patrick Roberts suggested that the club celebrate the trip by having the remaining members have a fun time whilst the others are in the Cook Islands. (I think that is what he said?).
- Kerry Hayes-Williams reminded us to remind others about the ‘Comedy for a Cause’ night at Centro on the end of July.
- Ray Lee was sorry to tell us that we lost the Australia Day contract.
- And Tom O’Toole forgot to mention that the Imagination Library is having a Gala Movie night to raise funds on Friday 18th August. Someone else did and Tom was grateful.
Jessica then presented the board to the meeting. She rolled out what the new committee was going to achieve.

One Area that was seen as achievable was to meet the criteria for a citation from the Rotary International President.

A good initiative was to have each table look at one of the three sections that cover the areas of the Rotary citation. The report back from each table was that in our current mode of operation we achieve at least 4 of the goals set out. Therefore, we would be in the running for a citation.

The three areas are:

- Support and Strengthen Clubs
- Focus and increase Humanitarian Services
- Enhance Rotary's Public image and awareness

I won't include all the items the board members raised, chiefly because I forgot to write them down.

My summary was (in soccer terms):

- Jessica, President, Coach, presented a well drilled well organised team.
- Angela, Secretary, 2 goals
- Helen, President Elect, 1 goal and plenty of assists.
- Marylyn, Amin director 0 goal, (but paid a great in central midfield).
- Ray, Club Services, 3 goals (hat trick)
- Tim, Treasurer, 3 goals (another hat trick)
- Barry, Membership, 5 goals (What is that called in Soccer?)
- Ken, Youth Services, 0 goals (but lots of work one in midfield and support of the strikers)
- Joanne, Foundation, 0 goals, (Keeps the whole team ticking over and on song)
If you haven’t already done so, book now and send invitations to your family and friends:
