Rotary Club of Dublin

On this day in 1920 was a key event in the Irish War of Independence, which was a conflict between the British government and Irish revolutionaries in Ireland. Bloody Sunday began with the killing of 14 people by the Irish Republican Army (IRA) under the leadership of Michael Collins. Two other violent incidents against civilian and IRA members during the day added to the death count, which amounted to over 30 by the end of the day.

The Rotary Club of Dublin, chartered in 1971, represents a wide cross-section of local business and professional individuals. Since the Club was established in 1971, members responded to the changing needs and challenges of the local and international communities by participating in programs and service projects that improve lives. But they wanted to do more. And so in 2007 they began to DREAM BIG! With approximately $50,000 in donations from club members, they established the Rotary Club of Dublin Foundation to be the primary gift-giving entity for the Rotary Club of Dublin.
President’s Message

Like most Rotarians I appreciate the importance of our motto “Service above Self”. I am proud of the service we do locally, nationally and internationally. Projects we are involved in at all 3 levels came out at our meeting last week. Globally we are great supporter of End Polio Now and I hope we can play a role in the “Give Every Child a Future” project in the Pacific, just as we have done in our Samoa, Cook Is and Niue aid. Nationally we are supporting the Drought Relief programs and locally we have rolled up our collective sleeves to help Para Meadows, the Living Classroom at Cringila Public School, Graffiti Removal and more. As we come to the calendar year end we should look back and acknowledge that each of us does what we can in our service activities. Together we can do much to help the community.

Helen

Report on last week’s meeting … Scribe: Joanne Glaser

- President Helen updated the members on our successful application for the District Grant to build the chicken coup at Cringila Primary School. A number of members successfully participated in the working bee at the School last week.
- Cringila Public School is having a lunch on Thursday 29th November to which members are invited.
- A meeting of ICAC will be held at the Novotel from 8.45am to 11.15am on Thursday 29th November, 2018. (Members will have time to get to the lunch at the School if they wish).
- Rose Pope noted that the raffle at the Christmas Party raised $320 and thanked Jim Christensen for his organisation of Santa for the evening.
- Patrick Roberts was asking about numbers for the evening of the Melodrama. It is a partners’ night.
- Jim Christensen attended an event by Facebook about growing a business through Facebook ads. If you pay money, you can grow a large business. Perhaps we could look at its use for the Club?
- The wine raffle was won by Rose Pope and Dieter Glaser (gladly accepted by his better half, Joanne Glaser).

Good to see the running of the Club’s weekly raffle staying within the family ... congratulations to winners Rose Pope & Bob Armessen (previous week) – well done! ... You need to give the rest of us a few tips 😊

- Sergeant John Erickson did a superb job extricating funds from members last week ... and using what appears to be some of Patrick Roberts’ jokes!!!
Remember Denise Wornig!

Denise Wornig, our Rotary Youth Exchange Student from Austria (2009/2010), will be visiting over Christmas. She will be attending our final meeting on the 19th December and is looking forward to seeing everyone.

Denise is currently finalising her Masters in European Project and Public Management in Austria while attending the Bush School of Government and Public Service (Texas A&M University) in America where she is on a scholarship to complete a second Master’s Degree in International Affairs and Diplomacy.

Seek respect, not attention.
It lasts a lot longer.
Seek loyalty, not obedience.
It is worth a lot more.
